FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

July 2018

Dear UAC Membership,

I can't believe how fast this year's going. If you haven't invited your friends and family to the co-op for unique gifts they are really missing out.

Besides our last Friday of the month get-togethers, there is also a first Friday drawing class hosted by the Phoenix that's open to the public. Come have a fun time for very cheap-- great way to meet new artists.

Along with our upcoming summit show in July, we've also confirmed the dates for October, and have another antique appraisal in September. What a busy year it's been and still going to be.

While working on painting the gallery, I noticed the space is really turning out great!! I want to give a big thank you again to Angel Boyle for all the wonderful cases we were able to purchase from her and another big thank you to Heleen Karpel for volunteering to do some lovely paint work to the gallery.

If there is any interest in craft and sip or any type of art class teachers please let me know.

If you are able to help at any of our upcoming shows or events we need you (:

Stephanie

LOOKING FORWARD

July 19: Field Trip to Touchstone

GUEST SPEAKER BIO

July's Guest Speaker Chuck Purviance

Originally from Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, Chuck graduated from Edinboro University in December of 2013. He then became a resident artists at Brockway Center for Arts and Technology (BCAT) In Brockway, PA. As a resident, he helped maintained the studio, mentored teens in the after-school programs, taught community college and adult ed classes, and worked towards a solo show. In 2015 Purviance was asked to stay on at BCAT as the teaching artist and manage the day to day events of their ceramic department. Thanks to BCAT, he had the chance to host visiting artists in the ceramics field, managed resident artists, curated multiple ceramic shows at BCAT and across PA, and manage the day to day operations of a ceramics studio. Currently, Chuck is a first year MFA candidate at Wichita State University in Wichita, KS and is exploring new ideas, while working on and creating an evolving body of work.
