From the PRESIDENT'S Desk:

August, 2015

We did it, we had our first show at the Summit Inn. From all indications it was a success. The folks at the Inn seemed to like the high level of art and presentation that we brought to the event. The show was a success in many ways, thank you all for your participation and help. As a club you must be doing something right, our membership has increased by a third since August of 2013, and we are becoming more visible in the community. It has been a pleasure being your President these past two years. I took the position reluctantly but it seems to have turned out well for all of us, thank you for your help and support. You can be pleased with our Organization and proud to say you are a member of the Uniontown Art Club. We can plan our 90th Anniversary now with our heads held high.
